

Summary Contents

Table of Cases
Table of Legislation
List of Abbreviations
Authors' Biographies

xxi
xlix
lvii
lix

PART I: THE CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK

1. An Introduction to Courts' and Principles-Based Interpretivism 3
2. Finance, the Rule of Law, and the Courts 37

PART II: PUBLIC LAW DISPUTES IN THE LAW OF FINANCE

3. An Anatomy of Issues in Public Law Disputes 55
4. A Matter of principles: Justiciability and accountability in the public law of finance 65
5. Courts' review of monetary and financial stability decisions 117
6. Courts' Review of Regulatory and Supervisory Decisions 131
7. Courts' Review of Crisis Management Decisions 179

PART III: PRIVATE LAW DISPUTES IN THE LAW OF FINANCE

8. An Anatomy of Issues in Private Law Disputes 223
9. Courts and the Law of Liability for Misstatements in Securities Offerings 235
10. Courts and Financial Contract Disputes 293
11. Courts in insolvency, collateral, and creditor coordination disputes 339

PART IV: TOWARDS BETTER JUSTICE IN FINANCE: THE CASE FOR SPECIALIZED COURTS IN EUROPE

12. Dispute Resolution in Finance and Its Shortcomings: Europe as a Test Case 389
13. A Snapshot of the Current Court System's Nodes and Challenges 427
14. A way forward: Specialized courts in the law of finance in the EU 465

Bibliography
Index

475
499

Detailed Contents

Table of Cases

Table of Legislation

List of Abbreviations

Authors' Biographies

xxi
xlix
lvii
lix

PART I: THE CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK

1. An Introduction to Courts' and principles-Based Interpretivism 1.01
 - 1 Disputes in the law of finance and courts' principles-based interpretivism 1.23
 - 2 Principles, financial stability, and interpretation 1.29
 - 3 Principles-based interpretivism, heuristics, and biases 1.31
 - 4 Principles-based interpretivism and legitimacy 1.35
 - 5 Critical views: Rules-based positivism and pragmatism
 - 6 Principles-based interpretivism versus plausibly similar alternatives in the adjudication of law of finance: the case of cost-benefit analysis and the discourse theory of justice 1.47
2. Finance, the Rule of Law, and the Courts 2.01
 - 1 Legal institutions and financial development 2.12
 - 2 Law, finance, and crises 2.13
 - 2.1 (Rule of) law and (financial) emergencies: expediency, stability, and legitimacy: the role of courts and legal principles 2.30
 - 2.2 Courts, crises, and biases: reframing urgency, seeking consistency, transitioning to 'normalcy' 2.39
 - 3 Courts and finance beyond crises: hard cases 2.40
 - 3.1 Courts beyond financial crises: hard cases, interstitial, and pivotal role 2.43
 - 3.2 Courts and finance: from back seat to front seat

PART II: PUBLIC LAW DISPUTES IN THE LAW OF FINANCE

3. An Anatomy of Issues in Public Law Disputes 3.02
 - 1 Courts, horizontal separation, and vertical allocation of powers 3.06
 - 2 Independent authorities/agencies and discretion 3.10
 - 3 The individuals within the system: Standing to sue and fundamental rights
4. A Matter of principles: Justiciability and accountability in the public law of finance 4.01
 - 1 Justiciability challenges of monetary and financial stability decisions 4.01
 - 1.1 Immunity of sovereign debtors, central banks, and international organizations
 - 1.2 Justiciability of financial stability and crisis management decisions in the EU 4.08

1.3	Justiciability of central banks' decisions	4.11
2	Justiciability issues in regulatory, supervisory, and crisis management decisions	4.14
2.1	Exclusions and limitations of liability	4.15
2.2	Agency discretion, justiciability, and the legitimacy of delegation	4.18
2.3	Soft law acts in financial regulation and supervision: justiciability, legal relevance, and control of shadow legislation	4.25
2.4	Challengeability of acts in complex proceedings	4.38
2.5	Standing to challenge decisions	4.49
3	Accountability beyond justiciability: access to documents, appointments, and quasi-judicial review	4.62
3.1	Transparency and access to documents	4.62
3.1.1	The experience in the United States	4.62
3.1.2	The EU legal framework . . . or patchwork on access to document	4.70
3.1.3	The case law on access to documents in the SSM and SRM	4.76
3.2	Independence and appointment of members of financial regulatory bodies	4.83
3.3	The relationship between court review and administrative review	4.90
5.	Courts' review of monetary and financial stability decisions	5.01
1	Introduction: monetary and financial stability and their legal challenges	5.06
2	Financial stability and fiscal backstops	5.08
3	Monetary policy decisions
4	Open issues: lender of last resort (LoLR) and appointment of central bank members	5.21
6.	Courts' Review of Regulatory and Supervisory Decisions
1	Introduction: regulatory and supervisory frameworks and their legal challenges	6.01
2	Vertical allocation of powers and judicial review in regulatory and supervisory decisions	6.06
2.1	The experience in the US: branching restrictions, FinTech, and administrative discretion	6.06
2.2	EU law: constitutional frictions, composite procedures, and EU authorities' application of national laws	6.10
3	Horizontal separation of powers and judicial review in regulatory and supervisory decisions	6.22
4	Courts and the regulatory perimeter: shadow banking, parallel unregulated activities, and banking groups	6.33
4.1	Shadow banking and parallel activities	6.34
4.2	Financial groups	6.42
5	A comparative assessment of courts' standard of review	6.47
5.1	US courts' arbitrary and capricious' standard: the 'demanding' version, and its challenge to the substantive application of the law	6.48
5.2	EU Courts' substantive-leaning and finalistic review: Their role as ultimate authorities in defining key concepts of the law of finance	6.52
5.3	US courts' arbitrary and capricious' standard and procedural safeguards	6.66
5.4	EU Courts' process-based review and procedural safeguards	6.69
6	Enforcement measures, sanctions, and penalties: safeguards and standard of review	6.75
7.	Courts' Review of Crisis Management Decisions
1	Introduction: crisis management frameworks and the courts	7.01

2. The legitimacy of crisis management frameworks	7.07
2.1 Delegation and accountability of enforcement powers and funding schemes	7.08
2.2 Crisis management funding: deposit guaranteees and resolution funds	7.14
3. Substantive review: 'property' and other rights	7.23
3.1 Substantive safeguards in bank crises	7.24
3.2 Substantive safeguards in sovereign crises	7.39
3.3 Substantive review beyond 'property': conditions for intervention	7.44
3.4 Substantive review beyond 'property' (II): cases involving depositors	7.50
3.5 Substantive review beyond 'property' (III): EU state aid cases' implications for shareholders and creditors	7.59
4 Procedural safeguards: 'Arbitrary and capricious', 'good administration' and judicial protection	7.63
4.1 US safeguards under the 'arbitrary and capricious' standard	7.64
4.2 EU process review and procedural safeguards	7.73
4.3 A brief mention to investment treaties arbitration	7.83
5 Cross-border recognition and cooperation	7.87
5.1 The regional (EU) context	7.88
5.2 The international context	7.93

PART III: PRIVATE LAW DISPUTES IN THE LAW OF FINANCE

8. An Anatomy of Issues in Private Law Disputes	8.01
1 Private disputes and vertical allocation of powers	8.08
2 Beyond verticality: private law disputes, jurisdiction, and applicable law	8.16
3 Vertical, horizontal tensions, and private plaintiffs: regulatory provisions and private law doctrines	8.23
4 Access to justice and collective redress	8.25
5 Contract interpretation: party autonomy, boilerplate, or hard cases?
9. Courts and the law of liability for misstatements in securities offerings	9.01
1 Introduction: Liability for misstatements and pure economic loss in private law	9.11
2 The development of a statute-based liability system: the US Exchange Act and Securities Act	9.12
2.1 Implying a private right of action, and federalizing securities litigation	9.26
2.2 Determining what investors deserve protection: materiality, reliance , and class actions	9.37
2.3 Section 10b and rule 10b-5 and defendants (renvoi)	9.38
2.4 Registration statement and prospectus liability under the Securities Act 1933	9.44
2.5 Section 10b, rule 10b-5 and vertical balance: Summary and latest developments	9.50
2.6 Insider trading: a major source of criminal liability, a relatively secondary source of private law liability	9.52
3 The creeping codification of securities liability for misstatements in the EU	9.53
3.1 Prospectus liability: an EU provision with doctrinal traction	9.58
3.2 Courts' steps towards harmonizing prospectus remedies: scope, damages, and invalidity	9.70
3.3 The dawn of a doctrine of 'reliance' and 'fraud-on-the-market' in domestic and EU courts?	9.84
3.4 Liability beyond prospectus: other disclosures and failures to disclose (market abuse)

4	Specialties of 'secondary actor' and gatekeeper liability	9.95
4.1	Constitutional dimension: statements versus opinions and free speech in US law	9.96
4.2	Private law considerations	9.106
4.3	Regulatory dimension (I): secondary actors as 'makers' of statements?	9.122
4.4	Regulatory considerations (II): Liability under securities laws and gatekeeper regulation in EU countries	9.137
10.	Courts and Financial Contract Disputes
1	Introduction	10.01
2	Validity disputes: the (un)enforceability of complex/speculative financial transactions in light of corporate 'capacity' and public policy	10.06
3	Disputes about intermediaries' duties and representations	10.24
3.1	Duties of advisers and broker-dealers in the US, and their significance in private actions	10.25
3.2	Banks' marketing duties under private law, absent advisory relationships	10.37
3.3	Regulatory requirements and private law duties in the EU (I): Fashioning private remedies for breach of regulatory duties	10.49
3.4	Regulatory requirements and private law duties in the EU (II): causal link, reliance, and basis clauses	10.82
4	Financial contracts' interpretation: express versus implied duties, specificity versus coherence	10.93
4.1	Contract interpretation: reasonableness, express, and implied terms	10.94
4.2	Contract interpretation: general considerations, events of default and valuation	10.105
4.3	Materially adverse events	10.122
11.	Courts in insolvency, collateral, and creditor coordination disputes
1	Introduction	11.01
2	Special purpose vehicles (SPV's) insolvency and clawback risk	11.11
2.1	Structured transactions risks in theory: avoidance, recharacterization and substantive consolidation	11.12
2.2	Structured credit and claw-back risks in practice: interim asset control in insolvency, and the treatment of bespoke transactions	11.29
3	Derivatives disputes in insolvency	11.37
4	Disputes over financial collateral: characterization, custody, and segregation	11.43
4.1	Classifying complex collateral arrangements as a recognizable security	11.44
4.2	Custody, intermediation, and segregation risk	11.48
5	Inter-creditor disputes ensure bankruptcy remoteness (shielding the assets from formal bankruptcy proceedings)	11.53
5.1	Limiting bankruptcy filing by SPV directors, and fiduciary duties	11.54
5.2	Limiting bankruptcy filing by creditors: non-petition and non-recourse clauses, and other mechanisms	11.59
6	Inter-creditor coordination disputes in collective enforcement, liquidation, and restructuring	11.71
6.1	Collectively enforcing claims: 'insolvency events' clauses and their hybrid (contract-statutory) construction by courts	11.72
6.2	Restructuring claims and inter-creditor conflict: disenfranchisement and oppression	11.77
7	Inter-creditor coordination disputes and the role of agents and trustees	11.89
7.1	The role of agent banks	11.90
7.2	Creditor coordination and the role of trustees (I): Duties and responsibilities	11.93

7.3	Creditor coordination and the role of trustees (II): Discretion and discretion-constraining clauses	11.101
8	Inter-creditor disputes over the distribution of proceeds	11.106

PART IV: TOWARDS BETTER JUSTICE IN FINANCE: THE CASE FOR SPECIALIZED COURTS IN EUROPE

12.	Dispute Resolution in Finance and Its Shortcomings: Europe as a Test Case
1	Courts' fragmentation in the law of finance	12.01
2	Courts' independence and impartiality	12.08
3	Courts' expertise and specialization	12.16
3.1	An 'external' perspective	12.17
3.2	An 'internal' perspective	12.30
4	Courts' organization and procedure	12.41
5	Courts and inter-institutional 'dialogue' (I): the exercise of discretion and the standards of review	12.44
6	Courts and inter-institutional 'dialogue' (II): inter-court coordination (or lack thereof) and its systemic effects	12.55
6.1	The 'threshold' issue	12.56
6.2	The 'linearity' issue	12.62
13.	A Snapshot of the Current Court System's Nodes and Challenges
1	Introduction	13.01
2	Nodes of the courts' system in public financial law disputes	13.03
2.1	Vertical coordination of courts	13.04
2.2	Horizontal coordination (and competition) of courts	13.09
2.3	Horizontal coordination by courts and quasi-courts	13.11
3	Nodes of the courts' system for private law disputes in the law of finance	13.38
3.1	Private law disputes: precedents in domestic practice and hybrid international commercial courts	13.39
3.2	Mass, small-ticket disputes, and the role of alternative dispute resolution (ADR)	13.44
3.3	Private law disputes as a follow-up of public law disputes	13.50
4	Specialized financial courts and arbitration: friends or foes? Nuances between commercial and investment arbitration, and their relationship to private and public law disputes	13.59
14.	A way forward: Specialized courts in the law of finance in the EU
1	European specialized courts for public law disputes and Article 257 TFEU	14.01
2	A European specialized court for cross-border private law disputes and Articles 81(2) and 67(4) TFEU	14.04
3	The Unified Patent Court as a controversial blueprint	14.06
4	Specialized courts, EU general principles of national procedural autonomy, equivalence and effectiveness, and national constitutional counter-limits	14.08
5	A cautious proposal for adjustments to the existing court system in the law of finance	14.10

Bibliography
Index

475
499